1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a formal address, and it is the first of its kind since the signing of the Constitution. The President, James Buchanan, is addressing the Congress, and he is doing so in a very formal and dignified manner. He is discussing the state of the Union, and he is discussing the issues that are facing the country at that time. He is also discussing the role of the President, and he is discussing the responsibilities that he has as the President of the United States. The letter is a very important document, and it is a document that has been studied and analyzed for many years. It is a document that is still relevant today, and it is a document that is still being read and studied by many people. I received a Certificate of Surgeon R. P. Hunt, in charge, dated 4th July 1864. On the 5th day of July I was regularly transferred to "The Hospital" near Camp Howard & arrived, & was admitted on the 9th July following, where I remained until the 14th August following. See Certificate of Surgeon R. P. Hunt, in charge, dated 14th August 1864. On the 14th August I was transferred to Hospital at New York. I will also mention a Certificate of Surgeon R. P. Hunt, in charge, dated the 14th August 1864, which I received, and could not give any further into my wound. I was on duty until about, waiting to be assigned to some other hospital. I was then sent to "Camp Howard" near Macon Ga. where I remained several days. The surgeon's being to back to restore him, I found of this place I demanded to be sent to some hospital, upon which I was sent to New York.

When I arrived on the 26th day of August 1864, and was ordered to the "Hospital" at that place. I remained there until the 28th Sept. following, when I was discharged. See Certificate of Surgeon: James A. Higin, in charge of said Hospital (marked Exhibit 2nd). Being discharged from Hospital, I immediately returned to my command. The Army was then moving on, and I accompanied it, arriving at the 5th day of October following, & reported myself to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment.

On the 2nd day of the same month I received the following order to wit:

Adjutant General's Office
Sept. 27th 1864

Ordered Sept. 27th 1864

Second Lieut. J. H. [Name], Co. C 1st Regt. Ark. Inf. Co.

not return, and will provide for the day there to be an officer of the S. A. Co. C.

By command of the Secy of War

Geo. H. Rains

Sub Adjutant Genl.

During the period of my absence from the 27th May to the 28th Sept. 1864, it appears that authoritative information of my whereabouts, & the cause of my absence, was not received by the Comdg. Officer of the Regiment in consequence of which I was reported "absent without leave", and upon this report the above quoted order was forwarded. But it will be perceived by an examination of the facts I have stated, and of the proof adduced, in the form of Certificates from the Surgeon in charge of the various hospitals in which my illness confined me, that every day of the absence is accounted for; that I have no

No. 12 Comm. for Discharge

Quarrel 1842

Camp Douglas Chicago Ill
January 11th 1865

Sir:

I, Alexander Cox a private of Co. C 12th Confederate Georgia Infantry would most respectfully represent that I was Enlisted into the Rebel Service in May 1862 at Vicksburg Georgia. At the time of my Enlistment the greatest excitement prevailed throughout the South and like so many misguided men I drifted into this rebellion without being aware of the great wrong I was committing.

I would further represent that I was Captured at Atlanta Georgia on the 28th July 1864 by General Sherman's Command, and that I do not wish to be detained South in Exile but would respectfully ask that permission be granted me to take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States and enjoy the privileges of an American Citizen.

I am Sir

Very Respectfully &c

This company was formerly Company D, 10th (Villiger's) Regiment Georgia Infantry. Part of the company was transferred to the 1st Battalion Confederate Infantry about January 20, 1862, and organized as company A. The remnant appears to have been mustered out at expiration of term of service March 5, 1862.

The designation of the 10th (Villiger's) Regiment Georgia Infantry was changed to the 1st Regiment Confederate Infantry, also known as the 1st Confederate Regiment Georgia Volunteers, by S. O. No. 25, A and I, G. O., dated January 31, 1862.

The records show that Stephen Day (also also borne as Stephen J. Day), private, 1st Co. C, 1st Reg't Confederate Infantry (also called the 1st Confederate Reg't Georgia Vols.), enlisted Mar. 18, 1861, for 12 months, and on the company master roll for September and October, 1861, last on which he was reported present. This company was mustered out at the expiration of term of service, Mar. 18, 1862.

The records show that he again enlisted April 9, 1862, as a private in Co. A, same reg't, and on the master roll of 2d Co. E, of the reg't mentioned, for July and August, 1862, he was reported, as private, present. He was admitted to Campbell's Hospital, Macon, Ga., Dec. 20, 1864, with gunshot wound in upper right arm, and was discharged Dec. 23, 1864. No later record of him has been found.

A statement of service relative to Day was furnished by this office on May 18, 1916, to the Commissioner of Pensions, State of Georgia, Atlanta, and a further search of the records, based on the roll made within, has resulted in finding the data above given, and so much of the statement furnished in the communication referred to as differs therefrom is erroneous.

This company was formerly Company G, 10th Virginia Infantry. It appears to have been mustered out of the Confederate service in April 1862.

The designation of the 10th Virginia Infantry as the 1st Regiment Georgia Infantry was changed to the 1st Confederate Infantry in 1862. The 1st Confederate Infantry was known as the 1st Confederate Regiment Georgia Volunteers in N. C. A. 1861 to 1862 dated January 1, 1862.

About April 1, 1862, the 1st Confederate Infantry, Georgia Infantry, and the 1st Confederate Georgia Infantry were consolidated and formed the 1st Confederate Division Georgia Volunteers, which was later designated N. C. May 1, 1862.

State of Georgia, Atlanta.

The records show that William T. Masley, private, 1st Co. G, 1st Reg't Confederate Infantry (also called the 1st Confederate Reg't Georgia Vols.), enlisted July 22, 1861, for 12 months, and on the company roll for September and October, 1861, the last on file, he was reported present. No later record found of a man of this name and organization. The company was mustered out at the expiration of term of service, Mar. 18, 1862.

The records further show that William F. Masley, private, Co. A, same Reg't, enlisted Apr. 9, 1862, and on the muster roll of 2d Co. E of the Reg't mentioned, for July and August, 1862, he was reported present. It is further shown that he was killed July 20, 1864, at the battle of Peach Tree

A partial record of the above named man was furnished by this office May 15, 1916, to the Commissioner of Pensions, State of Georgia, Atlanta, but as much of that record as varies with the statement given hereinbefore is erroneous.
